Da Vinci Code

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. The novel's "quest" involves numerous puzzles and codes. Did you enjoy trying to solve these puzzles along with the characters?
2. Did you solve any of the puzzles before the characters did?
3. If you could spend a day in any of the places described in this novel, where would it be, and why? The Louvre? Westminster Abbey? Rosslyn Chapel? The Temple Church?
4. Did Saunière make the right decision separating Sophie from the rest of her family?
5. A major concept throughout this novel is the idea of femininity. What is Dan Brown trying to say about the world's idea of women through his repetitive thought about the disregard for women?
6. Will you look at the artwork of Da Vinci any differently now that you know more about his "secret life?"
7. Many topics within The Da Vinci Code can be either be revered or viewed as controversial. How did these warring viewpoints influence you while reading it?
